Game Overview

Super Egalite is an optional side wager for the game of Punto Banco/Baccarat, which can be played on a Mini, Midi, Bean Bacc or full-sized table set up.

Simple & Easy

Super Egalite is an extremely easy game to play that pays big. All that's required of the player is to place a side bet on any Super Egalite spot on the table layout. Standard Player, Banker, or Tie bets are entirely optional and not a prerequisite for playing Super Egalite.

Each Super Egalite side bet spot represents a different possible score. If both the Player's hand and the Banker's hand result in the same score, and the participant has wagered on that score, the participant wins according to the pay table.

Great Payout Odds

With Super Egalite, the possible odds payable are very exciting for participants. Players who wager on a Super Egalite spot can win anywhere from 22-to-1, all the way up to 160-to-1, if both the Player's hand score and the Banker's hand score match the number wagered on.

How To Play Super Egalite

1. Players do not need to place a standard wager on either the Player, the Banker or Tie, in order to place a Super Egalite side wager.
2. They may place wagers on more than one Super Egalite betting position if they wish to do so.
3. When placing a Super Egalite bet, players are wagering that both the Player's and Banker's hands will a tie, and equal to the range of the wager.
4. The player's wager will win if any of the specific scores in the selected range is the outcome of the tied hand.
5. All other Super Egalite bets, not associated with the winning individual Egalite, will be lost to the House.
6. If the result of the coup is not an Egalite, all Super Pay Egalite wagers will be lost to the House.
